

Collector's Room

Formerly the Berlin Gallery, the Collector's Room opened in 2006 and was reformat-ted by The Heard Shop in 2014. The Collector's Room is part of the Heard Museum Shop and strives to carry the best of the best. Artists, both living and deceased, are represented. The gallery features an extraordinary collection of fine art, jewelry, pottery, baskets, textiles, and katsinas. The inventory is constantly changing.
