

General Information

The application must be postmarked by September 7, 2018. Please remember to include your $25 application fee.

Applications postmarked between September 7 and September 14 must be accompanied by a $75 late fee per applicant, in addition to the $25 fee. Any applications postmarked after September 14 will not be accepted. Hand-delivered or online applications must meet the same deadlines. The Heard Museum Guild is not responsible for lost mail or slow delivery.

Payments may be made by cashier's check, money orders, or on-line credit card charge.

We use a blind jurying process to rate artists for entrance to our market. Be sure you are sending the finest pictures available of your art. Images are required from artists who did not submit new images for the 2017 or the 2018 Fair. The better the quality of pictures, the easier for the judges to jury your art for a higher score.

Contracts will be mailed to accepted artists in October with further information about the Fair, including booth fee due dates and guidelines for entering Juried Competition.

Artists 17 years old and under whose relatives have been accepted into the Fair may sell their work in their relatives' booth and those 12 years of age and older may enter Juried Competition. Each youth artist must submit their own application. Please see the application for information on how to obtain one. There are no fees for a youth artist, but a copy of a proof of tribal enrollment is required.

For further information, email excomm@heardguild.org or call/text 480-285-6626 and leave your name and phone number. All calls and emails will be returned. Please be sure to repeat your phone number and name as cell phone voicemail is not always clear.

We are looking forward to another successful Indian Fair and Market for 2019.

Becky Comstock
Artist Exhibitors Chair
Heard Museum Guild
July 2018